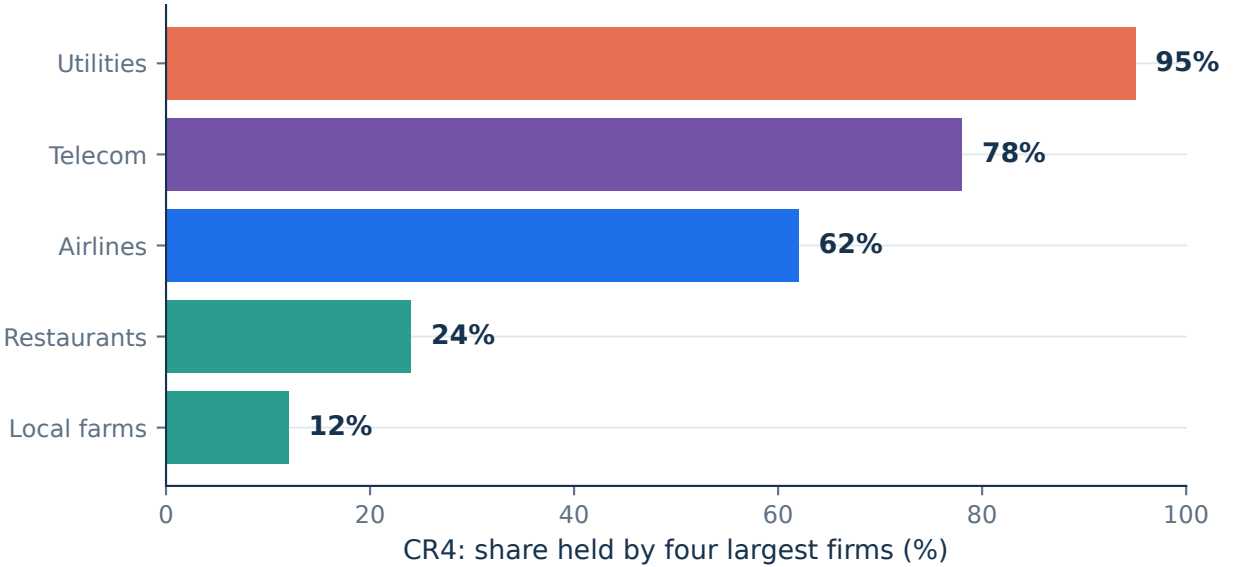
Market concentration is a structural clue

A four-firm concentration ratio summarizes how much market share is held by the largest firms.



Source: Original illustrative model data. | Synthetic industry examples; not measured market shares.